

Sheralyn Holmes

Civil Marriage Celebrant

WITH a sincere commitment to meeting your personal needs, I will create a ceremony for your important occasion that is carefully, creatively and sensitively prepared.

Based in Mount Gambier, South Australia, I mostly cover the south east of South Australia and western Victoria, however, being passionate about my work, I also enjoy the opportunity to officiate at other places throughout Australia.

A wedding ceremony is a celebration where public recognition is given to the private experience of your love. Your ceremony may be romantic, original or traditional, and it should reflect your feelings and beliefs.

Please feel free to contact me to discuss my services, legal obligations and your personal requirements.

Kind regards,
Sheralyn Holmes
